DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS:
SOUTH TRIMBLE, of Franklin.
FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE
JAS. B. CANTRILL, of Scott.
FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORNEY,
R. B. FRANKLIN, of Franklin.

Next in order is Indian Summer.

Two masked men held up and robbed four Denver saloons.

NEVER, in the history of Paris, were cottages in more demand than at the present time.

FIVE hundred girls employed in paper box manufactories are on a strike for more money.

MRS. WM. ANDERSON, of Cincinnati, committed suicide while demented over the loss of a young son.

THE motto of both sides of the coal strike seems to be, "God help the rich, the poor can freeze."

ONE hundred thousand persons, on Tuesday, marched in the veterans' naval parade at Washington.

In these days of trusts a man is not known by the company he keeps, but by the company that keeps him.—Bath Co. World.

SOON the work on the new Court House will begin, and things on the public square will assume an aspect of activity.

OLD KING COAL was a merry old soul, and a merry old soul was he, but he's got the price of coal so high, that he's quite a mystery.

REGISTRATION day last Tuesday was a very quiet one in this city. It seems that after registering, everybody left town to attend the trots at Lexington.

MR. W. J. BRYAN says congress should be convened in extra session to deal with the coal strike. He details five measures which he thinks should be at once enacted into laws.

SOMEHOW we can't help admiring John Mitchell, president of the miners' union. He is a level headed man and gives the coal barons a Roland for every Oliver.—Lex. Democrat.

The Georgetown Times, says: There has been a fearful collision between the "full dinner pail" and the "empty coal bucket," but all that good Republicans have to do is to "stand pat."

THE Coal Trust would have the President call out the regular army to compel the miners to do their bidding. But then martial law was always a popular method with Republicanism.—Georgetown Times.

MISS HELEN GOULD will have all the decent people of the United States on her side in her womanly stand against the vile exhibitions that have polluted other exhibitions, and her demand that they be excluded from the "Midway" of the St. Louis Fair.

WHEN the Republicans tell you that the tariff makes things cheaper, ask them if they are not well enough acquainted with their own doctrine of protection to know that the primary object of the protection was to hold prices up and to keep out any competition that would undersell American manufacturers.—Maysville Bulletin.

THE advertising manager for Marshall Field & Co., of Chicago, says that "though people may be too busy to read circulars, booklets and advertising letters, they are never too busy to glance through the newspaper, and their eyes readily catch the striking lines of an advertisement." Good advertising in a newspaper can be made to impress the busiest people.

OF course, it is the poor devil of a workingman who is asked, "for the sake of humanity," to end the coal strike by giving up hope of that for which he has so heroically fought. It is becoming pretty well understood that the last people we can go to to get anything "for the sake of humanity" are "the men in whom God in His infinite wisdom has given control of the property interests of this country."—Louisville Times.

THE annual meeting of the Kentucky Division of the United Confederate Association will be held in Louisville October 23 and 24. The "Home" at Pewee Valley will be dedicated on October 23, and the members of the state reunion will take a leading part in that event. The establishment of a home for the needy heroes who wore the gray has been long deferred but the consummation devoutly desired for a long time is soon to be realized.—Exchange.

Farm For Sale.

Having decided to invest in land in the West, I will sell my farm, known as the Quincey Burgess farm, one mile from Hutchison Station, containing 129 acres, all in fine state of cultivation, not one acre but good for hemp and tobacco. There is a nine-room brick house, and all necessary out-buildings, including a good barn, well watered. There are 80 acres in wheat, the rest in Blue Grass. The title to the farm is clear and unincumbered of any kind.

Any one wishing a good farm will do well to call on or address,
